The Twelve Apostles

St Thomas

“O Glorious St. Thomas,
your grief for Jesus was such that it would not let you believe he had risen unless you actually saw him and touched his wounds.
Help us to earn the title of “blessed”
which Jesus bestowed on those who would believe in him
without seeing him.”

In the Gospel of Matthew,
Jesus tells us :
“Give to God
what belongs to God.”

St Philip Howard (1557 – 1595)

Philip was the earl of Arundel and Surrey and, although from a Catholic family, was largely indifferent to religion until his personal conversion, after which he became an enthusiastic Catholic in the midst of Elizabethan England. Arrested by authorities, he was placed in the Tower of London in 1585 and condemned to death in 1589. Although the sentence was never carried out, Philip suffered 10 years' imprisonment in the Tower until he died of dysentery at the age of 38. Beatified in 1929, he was included among the English martyrs canonised in 1970 by Pope Paul VI.
