

Looking Forward

5th Sunday of Easter
7th May 2023

In the Gospel of John, Jesus tells us :

“I am the way
the truth and the life.”

Looking Forward as Sisters and Brothers

The Gospel tells us that Jesus is:
The Way and the Truth and the Life.

When Jesus ascends,
the Father sends, in Jesus' name,
the Advocate, the Holy Spirit,
who will continue
the work of the Father and of Jesus.

Unlike the disciples,
we have not seen Jesus in person
but we believe that in knowing and loving Jesus
we know and love God.

Padre Nostro, che sei nei cieli

Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich, SC
(26th March 1901 – 8th May 1927) was an American Ruthenian Catholic Sister of Charity who was beatified by the Catholic Church in 2014. The beatification ceremony was the first to take place in the United States, being held in Newark, New Jersey.

She desired a religious life and after caring for her sick mother she entered the convent of the Sisters of Charity of St Elizabeth.

She wrote 24 conferences which were published as a book after her death at the age of 26.

“Do not stand still; a young person cannot stand still.”

- Pope Francis, Papal audience 2014

St John Rochester

A saint and martyr from our diocese, John was the third son of John Rochester, of Terling, Essex, and Grisold Writtle of Bobbingworth. He joined the Carthusians, was a choir monk of the Charterhouse in London, and strenuously opposed the new doctrine of the royal supremacy under Henry VIII. The government had succeeded in putting down a rising in Lincolnshire, when on 13th October 1536, the far more serious Pilgrimage of Grace broke out, mustering possibly 40,000 people. One of the flashpoints had been the northern city of York, it was necessary for the government to mount a lesson in the city. The two London monks were brought from Hull to York and brought before the Lord President of the North, the Duke of Norfolk, on trumped up treason charges where they were condemned to death.

Looking Forward

~ Looking Forward as Sisters and Brothers ~

Monday 8th May 2023

Brentwood Diocese Education Service

Looking Forward as Sisters and Brothers

The Gospel tells us that Jesus is:

The Way and the Truth and the Life.

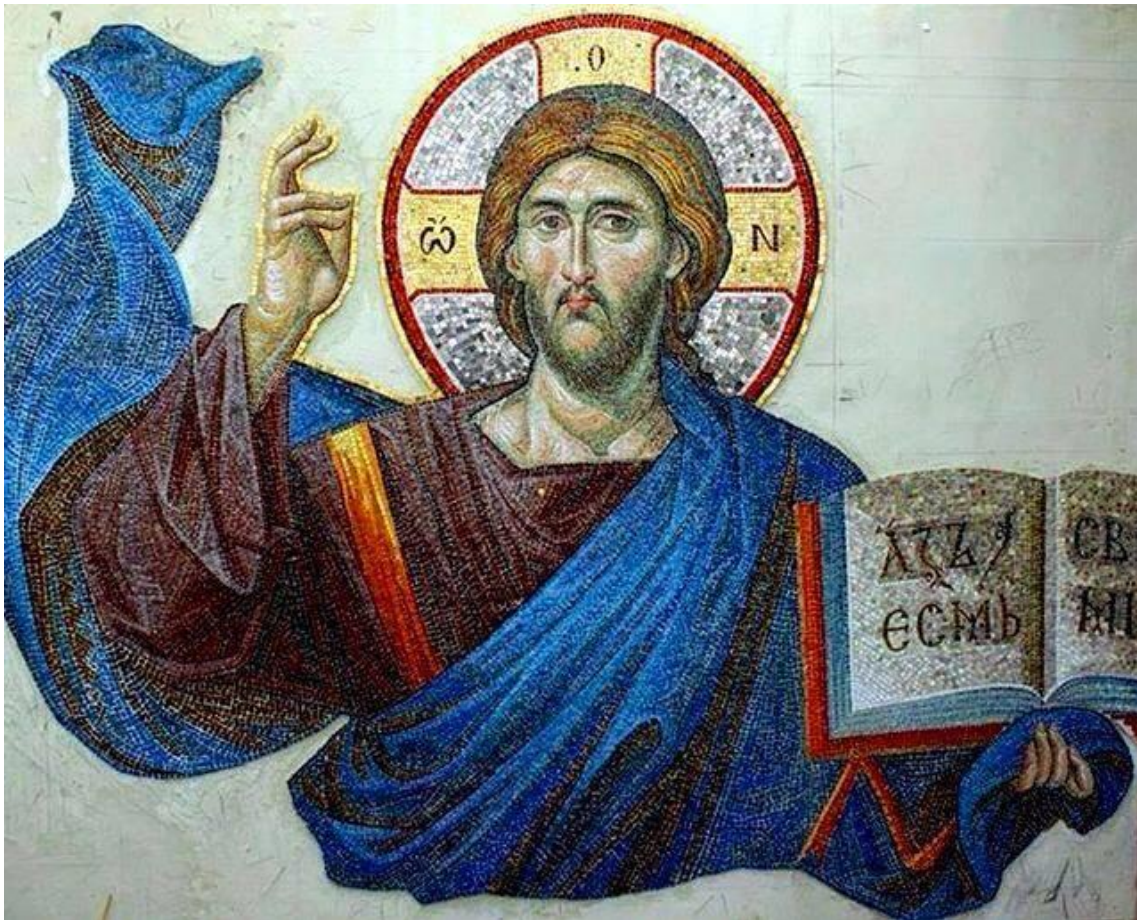

When Jesus ascends,
the Father sends, in Jesus' name,
the Advocate, the Holy Spirit,
who will continue the work of the Father and of Jesus.

Unlike the disciples we have not seen Jesus in person
but we believe that in knowing and loving Jesus
we know and love God.

BDES

In Sunday's Gospel Reading ...

Sunday 7th May 2023 :

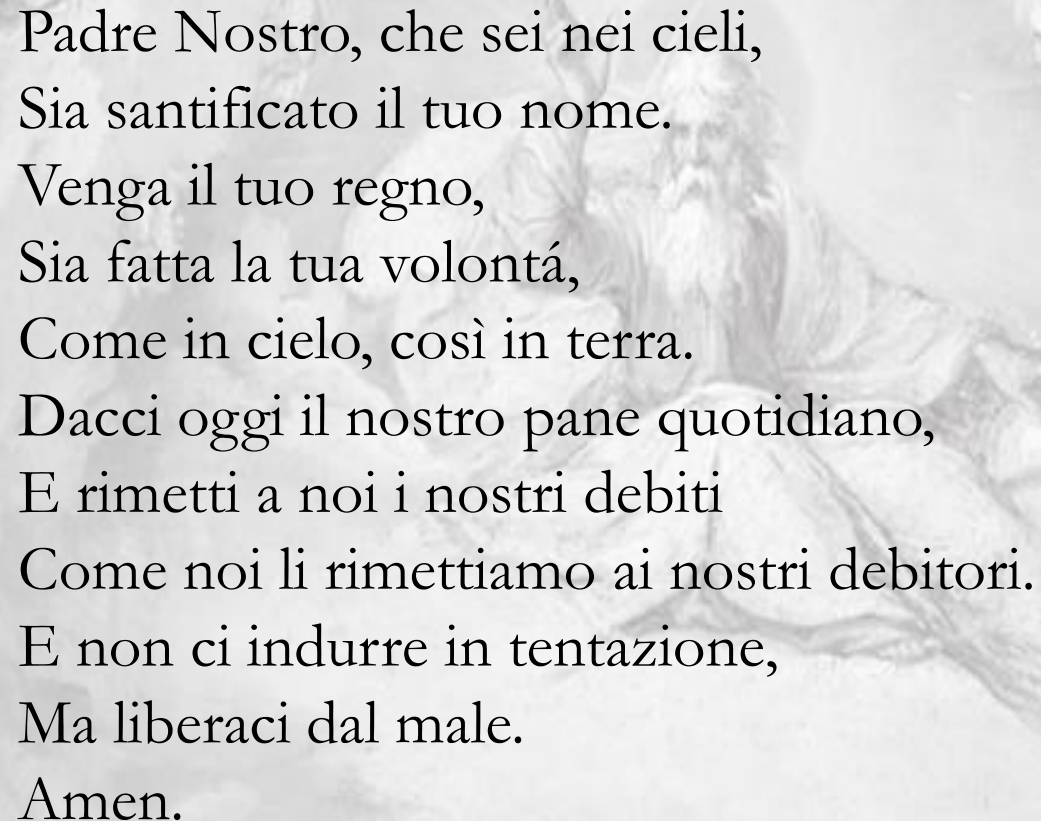

In the Gospel of John,
Jesus tells us :

“I am the way,
the truth
and the life.”

BDES

The Lord's Prayer

Padre Nostro, che sei nei cieli,
Sia santificato il tuo nome.
Venga il tuo regno,
Sia fatta la tua volontà,
Come in cielo, così in terra.
Dacci oggi il nostro pane quotidiano,
E rimetti a noi i nostri debiti
Come noi li rimettiamo ai nostri debitori.
E non ci indurre in tentazione,
Ma liberaci dal male.
Amen.

As we look forward to World Youth Day in August this year, we remind ourselves of the things we share with our fellow young people from all over the world. At this international event, Catholics will pray the prayer Jesus taught us in a huge number of languages. We will mark this with a weekly inclusion of the Lord's Prayer in the languages spoken and taught in our schools.

This week the Lord's Prayer is in

Italian

BDES

Preparing for World Youth Day 2023

“Do not stand still; a young person cannot stand still.”

- Pope Francis, Papal Address 2014

Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich

Feast day : 8th May

Miriam Teresa Demjanovich, SC (26th March 1901 – 8th May 1927) was an American Ruthenian Catholic Sister of Charity who was beatified by the Catholic Church in 2014. The beatification ceremony was the first to take place in the United States, being held in Newark, New Jersey.

She desired a religious life and after caring for her sick mother she entered the convent of the Sisters of Charity of St Elizabeth.

She wrote 24 conferences which were published as a book after her death at the age of 26.

Martyrs of England and Wales : St John Rochester

A saint and martyr from our diocese.

John was the third son of John Rochester, of Terling, Essex, and Grisold Writtle, daughter of Walter Writtle, of Bobbingworth.

He joined the Carthusians, was a choir monk of the Charterhouse in London, and strenuously opposed the new doctrine of the royal supremacy under Henry VIII. Dom John Rochester and Dom James Walworth were taken to the Charterhouse of St. Michael in Hull, Yorkshire.

The government had succeeded in putting down a rising in Lincolnshire, when on 13 October 1536, the far more serious Pilgrimage of Grace broke out, mustering possibly 40,000 people. The government was desperate to stamp out any centres of resistance. Since one of the flashpoints had been the northern city of York, it was necessary for the government to mount a lesson in the city.

The two London monks were brought from Hull to York and brought before the Lord President of the North, the Duke of Norfolk, on trumped up treason charges where they were condemned to death and died on 11th May 1537.

BDES

Looking Forward

~ Looking Forward as Sisters and Brothers ~

Monday 8th May 2023

Brentwood Diocese Education Service

